

Crossword #3

Across

2. syndrome associated with the "molar tooth sign" on axial MRI Brain (7)
4. Famous neurologist whose work featured in the film 'Awakenings' (5)
6. Glucose in CSF (13)
7. child neurology knowledge environment (4)
9. anterior horn cell disease in infants in which the genetic defect has been defined. (6)
10. Immunosuppressant drug with promising results in treating the Tuberous Sclerosis Complex (9)
11. American neurosurgeon. He was first to electrically stimulate the human sensory cortex a

Down

1. Christian martyr and patron of those who suffer from epilepsy and Sydenham's chorea
3. Terking of muscle or group of muscles triggered or intensified by voluntary movement or even the intention to move (6,9)
5. Advanced genetic technique for an effective therapy in Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy(4,8)
8. maneuver to enhance the muscle stretch reflex (10)
12. Mutation analysis of this gene is definitely indicated in males with developmental delay, intractable seizures, and ambiguous genitalia.(3)

100 years ago (6,7)

- 14. Absolute contraindication to the ketogenic diet (9)
- 16. A phosphodiesterase inhibitor shown to have therapeutic efficacy in Severe Myoclonic Epilepsy of Infancy (10)
- 18. During the napoleonic wars, the Duke of Wurttemberg in Stuttgart, referred to this as the \"suasage poison\" following an epidemic of deaths from food poisoning.(9)

- 13. The 19th International Congress of Child Neurology will be held here in May 2026 (6)
- 14. this tumour suppressor gene is found mutated in several types of brain tumours (3)
- 15. An anticonvulsant (9)
- 17. This pupillary movement is characteristic of aconite poisoning (6)